THE GLASGOW BANK'S STORY.

Reckless Management Followed
By Deliberate and Long Continued Fraud.

New York World.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Ever since the failure of the City of Glasgow Bank
the Stock Exchange

the Black Exchange has been filled with all sorts of rumors originated by robbers to raise or depress prices of those who transmit them to and circulate them in America may possibly have the same interest to serve as those who circulate them here. It may be depended upon that anything not sent in these dispatches on this subject has not taken such tangible shape as to be worthy of attention.

The Telegraph, in its financial article this morning, alluding to the rumor spread yesterday of a loan from the Bank of France, to the Bank of England, says: "The stories about the Bank of England and the Bank of France are palpable inventions. If one institution required bullion from the other no special arrangement was required to effect a purchase." The ar-

He also says: "Some mischievous rumors of failures were also set afloat but their absurdity was so glaring that they did no harm, and were discredited as soon as uttered." The Times, in its financial article, commenting on the official report of the investigation into the affairs of the City of Glasgow Bank, says:

The shareholders will now have some got thrown upon the condition of the bank's affairs, and a most sombre sight it is. The bank has lost on a moderate and probably favorable estimate, $6,200,000. That is a most disastrous statement for the unhappy shareholders and we need hardly say that a loss of such magnitude could never have fallen on them but for reckless management to begin with and deliberate and long continued fraud practised to hide that mismanagement. The story set forth in the report is one of the most disgraceful in the history of banking. Accounts have been deliberately falsified, securities entered at fictitious values, and debts taken as good and the very old which ought to have been held against the note issue deliberately squandered to the extent of over £300,000. The Government has been

The Government has been deceived by false returns, the shareholders by cooked balance-sheets and every one doing done, in short, that perverse innuendo could think of, to conceal the bankrupt condition of the bank until it became a national calamity. The revelations of the investigators must shake the mercantile community almost as much as the news of the failure, and ought to be the signal for many such needed banking reforms. Here a bank professedly occupied with the commerce of Scotland, a bank notable among South banks for its pushing endeavors to establish branches all over the northern half of the kingdom, growing away millions to support propped rotten firms in the East India trade, investing in doubtful or altogether speculative securities, such as Erie and other American railway stocks, buying land in Australia and New Zealand, and generally behaving like an insane gambler. The managers have lent rather freely on bad security or have puffed up some possibly shrewed and rich, but over-eager speculator, to the loss of the concern.

When their courage failed them. They never told the truth; it was easier hide the losses in ambiguous balance-sheets, and the first losses were thus. Then worse came. It was necessary to go from one criminal act to another in order to keep the ever increasing losses out of sight, until at last the criminality reached the point of paying a splendid dividend and issuing a balance-sheet showing a large surplus at the very time when the funds of the bank managers had to extract the gold against its notes in order to keep the concern above water for a few more days. No comments can add to facts like these. We can only repeat that if such offenses against the innocent public and the suffering shareholders are allowed to go unpunished there is an end to confidence in Scotch banking.

The citizens are respectfully invited to attend these appointments. The candidate of the Republican party is invited to a discussion and may have an equal division of time.

A. A. GALLOWAY, Chair of Dist. Ex. Com.

The Wilmington Star says that at a social gathering of the military officers at Raleigh, last week, the name of Col. Thomas M. Holt was toasted as that of "the next Governor of North Carolina."

Joiah Turner, on the breaking out of the war, entered the cavalry as the place of last danger. Finding that not absolutely safe he squeezed into a secure perch in the Confederate Congress, whence he could view his neighbors and neighbor's sons into the hands of the conscript officers. Yet he talks about his having been a Union man.

We present elsewhere a letter from J. H. Fleming, a prominent young lawyer of this place on the subject of the numerous arrests which have been made for failure to list taxes. What Mr. Fleming says about the matter deserves attention. If abuses exist, we believe it will be the pleasure of our magistrates to correct them when thus pointed out. We invite attention to Mr. Fleming's letter.

There is much good sense in the article on Banks which we publish this morning from the Charlotte Democrat, but rather too partisan. Because State Banks have been made on the "wild cat" basis is no reason why they cannot in future be established on a proper basis, as they were before the war. The percentage of North Carolina people who want a bank note which will "pass over the border" at par, is as 1 to 1,000 of those who feel the need of enough money to meet their demands inside the State. The proportion of North Carolina people who travel is very small, and those who do can put three or four bags of cotton in their pocket books (not in the shape of bags of cotton, but bills of exchange), and with enough cotton in their purses they can travel from Buncombe to Hindostan if they choose.

When Uncle Toby and Corporal Trim had gone a-courting of the Widow Wadman, quoth the Corporal, "And please your Honor, there's nothing so awkward and ill timed as courting a woman whilst she is stuffing sausages." Had the worthy Trim survived until our day, he might have added that courting a woman while she was making sausages was not near so ill-timed and awkward as Jo. Turner's canvass of the Fourth Congressional District placarded, as he is, with the official endorsement of the old "carpet-bagger" and "scoundrel" whom he incessantly denounced for years, declaring that no man could even associate with them without being defiled! A man must be "half-cracked," as was Uncle Toby, before he could "go-a-courting" of popular favor—under so embarrassing circumstances.

Still Flaunting the Bloody Shirt.

The New York Times is never weary of flaunting the Bloody Shirt. In a recent article, headed "Terrorism in the South," South Carolina is represented as being in a violent state of riot; intimidation and lawlessness rule everywhere. This time the reliable gentleman proves a friend of the President, who writes from Charleston that the Democrats are determined to crush the Republican party out of existence, by force if necessary. And furthermore, that a Republican has not the slightest showing for justice in the courts of South Carolina in a political case. The President has been interviewed and expresses his determination to stand by his friend and brother—the negro. He declares the rights of the colored man shall be respected, and that he will protect them to the utmost of his power—he says he has given instructions to enforce the law, &c. Now we might call all this Dush

If we did not know these stories of riot and blood shed in South Carolina were not malicious lies, conceived for the purpose of giving interest to the campaign, and to prolong the life of Radicalism, which is in the final throes of death even in South Carolina.

If Mr. Hayes would send a man to South Carolina, a man who could see the truth and report the truth, we might hear less of terrorism in the South. But as it is, there are none so blind as they who wish to be.

THE SEEMING IMPOSSIBILITY OF AWAKENING A CONCENTRATED "STATE PRIDE" (TO USE A TERM WHICH DOES NOT EXACTLY MEET THE CASE, FOR WE HAVE PLenty OF PRIDE WITHOUT CORRESPONDING PUBLIC SPIRITEDNESS) AMONG NORTH CAROLINIANS, WAS NEVER MORE PATENT THAN IN CONNECTION WITH THE RECENT STATE FAIR.

Everyone who knows anything of the history of the State Agricultural Society, is aware that, by the charter, the annual exhibition was located at Raleigh, not from any regard for the people, or the business of the city, but because Raleigh is the capital, the political, and very nearly the geographical, centre of the State, and the most accessible point for all parts of the State, all things considered. Equally well known is the fact that the Society was obliged to go deeply in debt for its extensive grounds, buildings and improvements. For several years the Fair was kept afloat, not by the State nor the Society, but by the trustful liberality of a few individuals, nearly all of whom, save the generous-minded President, were citizens of Raleigh. Further, it is well known that the present management, comprising gentlemen of the first business capacity, have labored for years, through a sea of difficulties, striving to avoid the rock of debt on the one hand, and the storms of thoughtless attack on the other,—and have yearly reduced the distance to the harbor of safety—though often nearly ready to despair at the work.

And now comes a clamor against Raleigh, as if she, a single city, and not the largest in the State, could take the Fair upon her shoulders, and make a State Exhibition of it! Yet it was only a few weeks ago since there ran 'round the State, the old complaint that the marshals, judges, committees etc., were not distributed to every county, or section! This in the face of the fact that on former occasions when such appointments were thus scattered, not one in a dozen of the appointees were present when needed to perform their duties; the expense of the trip being too great for the honor accruing.

As for the liberality of the citizens of Raleigh, that is not to be questioned. Taking the contributions year by year for all manner of purposes and objects, political, religious, charitable, and patriotic, we firmly believe the aggregate will show a larger average per man than any other town in North Carolina. Our people are hospitable, and from their location at the Capital, where conventions, associations, or other assemblies of visitors occur almost weekly, the claims of friendship are frequently called upon. As the estimable Paul Cameron of Hillsboro thoughtfully remarked at the Society's meeting, there are few families in Raleigh who derive any profit from the Fair. Few, indeed, of the merchants were greatly profited thereby. People rarely go shopping on public occasions; not many persons care to bring much money to the Fair. We doubt if $10,000 was left in Raleigh last week that would not have come to the city in the regular course of trade.

There is too much disposition to find fault with our public enterprises. North Carolina can never be a great State until her sons learn to take a pride in all that concerns her prosperity, regardless of localities or petty jealousies.

Well-Toned Systems.

Systems toned and renovated with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters are most effectively defended from disease. That supreme invigorant soon overcomes that distressing feebleness consequent upon ailments which impoverish the blood and relax the muscles. When applied to the stomach, the medicine frames and every physical faculty gains greater activity through its benign influence. Nor is this all for the Bitters have a general and cheering effect upon the mind of the debilitated individual, which is the natural result of the increased bodily vitality which they produce. Nervous symptoms disappear in consequence of the use of this medicine, and the evil consequences sure to result from a premature decay of the physical system are averted. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, rheumatic ailments, urinary and arterial irregularities, malarial diseases, and many other disordered conditions of the system, are remedied by the Bitters!

From Dr. C. C. Clark, Oswego, N. Y.

I have made sufficient experiment of Col. Clark's Liquid and Tonic Invigorator to enable me to say it is by far the best of all the kind (food and tonic) that I have ever used. To the sufferer from the convalescent, it is invaluable, being both nourishing and strengthening.

Happy tidings for nervous sufferers, and those who have been drugged, and quacked. Fulyer's Electric Belt of factually cures premature decay, weakness, and debility. Book and Journal, with information worth thousands, mailed free. Address FULYER-MACHINERY GALVANIC Co. Cincinnati, O. No money paid.

FOR UPWARDS OF THIRTY YEARS Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used in childhood. It cures the stomach, colic, relieves wind colic, regulates the bowels, cures dysentery and diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. An old and well-tried remedy. 25 cents a bottle. Sold everywhere.

A CAUTION.

To all who are suffering from the errors and indications of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a student of the South American School, self-addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph C. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. oct 26-18

HEGE'S IMPROVED CIRCULAR SAW MILL

MANUFACTURED BY THE SALEM AGRICULTURAL WORKS, SALEM, N. C.

LEVER FEED CUTTER.

CIRCULAR SAW MILL

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill is no new and dandified saw mill, but is one that is well known and favored in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superseding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any other first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular.

Something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters. At the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

Price reduced to $200. Send for circular. Liberal discount to agents. No goods consigned. Manufactured by the Salem Agricultural Works, Salem, N. C.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Go to Metropolitan Hall to-night.

Revenue Collections yesterday amounted to $5,409.26.

The Board of Directors of the W. N. C. Railroad met this week.

The Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina convenes in Goldsboro to-day.

The premium list of the Carolina Fair, Charlotte, will be published in a few days.

A large crowd should go to Metropolitan Hall to hear Capt. Davis this evening.

Take the suggestion of the News and remove the loose cotton from the Baptist Grove.

The music by Professor Pauli, at the marriage in Christ Church yesterday morning, was excellent.

It is time the old shanty by the postoffice, which occupies the middle of Martin street, was coming down.

A letter is held at the postoffice, for want of postage, addressed to Miss Anna T. Mansur, Detroit, Michigan.

A correspondent at Old Fort, under date of 24. says there has been snow on Black Mountain for the past four days.

Owing to the death in the family of the proprietor of the National paper will be issued from that office this week.

Jack Frost is successfully grappling with Yellow Jack in the South, and will soon have entirely vanquished the pestilential invader.

The Treasurer issued drummer's licenses yesterday, to Prior & Higgin, bery, Baltimore, Md., and to A. T. Stewart & Co., New York.

The trench for the sewer of the government building has nearly reached its terminus. The pipes will be laid and the job completed in four or five weeks.

The work on the third story of the postoffice which is intended for the Federal court room, is progressing, and if pushed a little, could be held in at the November term.

The Penitentiary authorities will discharge to-day Allen Shaw, colored, convicted in Cumberland county of manslaughter and sentenced to the Penitentiary November 1877. He is about 26 years old, 5 feet 7 inches and a half high, and weighed when admitted, 165 pounds.

Attention R. L. Artillery.

There will be a meeting of the company this evening, and every member is earnestly requested to be present, as business of importance is to be attended to. ANDREW WILLIAMS, O. S.

Abstracts of Taxables.

R. W. Frazier, Register of Deeds, of Randolph Co., yesterday made to the Auditor the following abstract of listed taxables:

General taxes $3,257.88

Special " 3,326.81

School " 4,883.74

County " 9,635.33

More Convicts for the Penitentiary.

Sheriff D. A. Grantham, of Wayne, brought up yesterday three convicts for the Penitentiary: Alf Langston, white, for manslaughter, sentenced 10 years; Arthur Stevens and Luke Sparrow, negroes, for larceny, each three years.

Capt. Davis to Speak.

Capt. Jos. J. Davis, the gallant champion of Democratic rights in this District, appears this evening at Metropolitan Hall. His address will be to the voters of the District, upon the issues of the present campaign. The subject is one of exceeding importance, and the speaker should have the attention of all good Democrats. The speaking begins at 7:30 o'clock.

Yesterday.

Yesterday was a nasty, disagreeable day; about 8 o'clock in the morning a cold, penetrating rain, commenced to fall, and continued, at intervals, until late in the night. No person's except those whose business compelled, were to be seen on the streets, and they had an uncomfortable look. Overcoats, rubbers, and umbrellas were in demand, and everything put a solemn winter-like appearance. Underfoot it was wretched, and many of the street crossings, by reason of the mud accumulated on them, were almost impassable.

Personal.

Col. Polk, our Commissioner of Agriculture, will attend the Weldon Fair next week.

Col. R. B. Peebles, of Northampton, was registered at the Yarrborough yesterday.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Vance is easier, and that the Governor hopes to bring her to this city with him the last of the week.

Mr. R. H. Battle is absent from the city, attending a meeting of the directors of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

Cadet J. B. Batchelor, of the U. S. Military Academy, returns to West Point this morning.

The Wilmington Review of Monday says that Congressman A. M. Wadell is seriously ill in that city and that he will not be able to enter the canvass again this campaign.

Mr. George Ziegler, our well-known cigar manufacturer, is rumored, contemplating moving to Wilmington shortly to start a factory there.

Mr. E. G. Brown.

We regret to part with Mr. E. G. Brown who just leaves us to take up his residence in Richmond, Va. Mr. B. first came to Raleigh as an insurance agent, and by his politeness, close attention to business and fair dealings, soon won lots of friends, and when he quit insurance and took up law it was said he was the best posted man and the best adviser in the South. We wish him much good luck in his new profession and in his new home. If prompt attention to business and generally despatch, together with a good legal foundation to start with, are necessary requisites, then Brown will surely succeed.

Fashionable Marriage.

The elite of the city were pleasantly amused yesterday by the marriage of one of the most charming ladies of the city to an estimable young gentleman of Wilmington. The principals in this matrimonial affair being

Miss Bessie Batchelor, daughter of

Hon. Jos. B. Batchelor, and Mr. Harry

Loeb. The scene of the ceremony was Christ Church, which had been most beautifully and artistically decorated with natural flowers, for the occasion.

The pulpit, lectern, chancel rail and altars were all wreathed with odorous flowers, which by their loveliness and fragrance lent an air of rare beauty to the sacred edifice. At 10 o'clock, the grand swell of the organ gave notice of the entrance of the bridal party. First came two couples, Master Frank

Batchelor and Miss Bessie Tucker, and

Master Johnnie Engelhard and Miss

Mary Snow. These paused at the steps of the altar, when the rest of the attendants filing by, took position in front of the chancel rail, in the following order:

Mr. L. H. Haywood and Miss Lucy

Battle; Mr. F. G. Law and Miss Cary

Parker; Mr. T. H. McCoy and Miss

Meta Capahat; Mr. W. B. McCoy

and Miss Kate Dwyer; Mr. Hope and Miss Bessie Haywood; Mr. Burbank

and Miss Maggie Tucker; Mr. K. P.

Battle, Jr., and Miss Carrie Winder;

Carlet Joseph B. Batchelor and Miss

Beyan; Mr. W. B. Batchelor and

Miss Jennie Hamberger; Mr. Binford

and Miss Lavine Haywood. Last came the groom with the bride's mother, and the bride on her father's arm. The marriage ceremony was then performed

by Rev. Ed. R. H. Rector, of the church of the Good Shepherd, assisted

by Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D., Rector

of Christ Church. The brief and beautiful service being ended and two happy hearts united, the organ again peal-

ed out its glad notes as the party made their exit. Taking carriages at the door they were whirled to the depot,

where the joyous pair took the train for a visit northward, where they will pass the honeymoon.

The bride, always attractive, appar-

ed to peculiar advantage in an elegant costume of plum-colored cassimere, trimmed with silk. The beautiful bride who were attendants also wear-ed admirably well. The wishes of the bride's legion of friends attend her.

Remedy for Scrofula.

We publish this morning a column

advertisement of the wonderful scrofula cure, made by Mrs. Joe Person, of Wilmington, N. C. From the testimonials in the advertisement, and they are all genuine, it will be seen that its curative qualities are remarkable. It is a newly gotten up humbug, but has been manufactured by Mrs. Person for more than twenty years and tested by numerous sufferers, all of whom have been cured by its use. Since the medicine has been on sale in the drug stores

of our city, a number of cures have been effected by its use, and judging from the testimonials given it is by some of our leading druggists, we feel safe in recommending it to all who are afflicted with scrofulous affections.

Mrs. Person is reliable and her medicine is honestly made, being prepared under her own supervision. The cures that have been brought about by its use testify to the wonderful powers of the medicine, in some cases causing hopeless cases to readily yield to its treatment. The medicine is sold by our druggists and may be relied on as performing all that is claimed for it.

Washington Post.

Special announcement of the intention of the Secretary of the Treasury to buy silver independent of the quotations of the London market, the price has fallen from 51 pence per ounce to 49, with every indication of a still further decline. The United States has been the principal purchaser of silver,

and it is believed that the London

silver quotations were manipulated for the interests of Germany, which has been slowly disposing of the silver which the recent demonetization left on her hands. The standard silver dollar was yesterday quoted at 82 cents, a decline

within a few days from 85.
